WHAT NEXT!

A friend asks this question. We take the answer from Mr. THOMAS B. FLORENCE'S newspaper at Washington, which enjoys the confidence and patronage of the Executive. Here it is:

"We do not wish to see the second advent of Cromwell of England, or Napoleon, of France, practiced upon the radical destructionists in this Congress; but what has been, may be, and will be again, if President Johnson is thwarted in his good intentions. The President must be sustained."

This is not a solitary intimation. Journals, both North and South, favorable to the President's Policy, have spoken in equally plain terms. The Senate has heard the same menace from one of its members. The President could scarcely have intended any thing less when he publicly denounced the Republican leaders of the chambers and declared his purpose to put them down. It has been stated in reputable western journals that the chiefs of the army have been sounded on this point; and no denial has been made.

MR. LINCOLN'S POSITION.

We desire to call attention to a single point to the dispatch, published two or three days ago, from Secretary SEWARD to Minister ADAMS, detailing the Hampton Roads conference between President LINCOLN and the Rebel Commissioners:

"It was further declared by the President that the complete restoration of the national authority was an indispensable condition of any assent on our part to whatever form of peace might be proposed. The President assured the other party that, while we must adhere to these positions, he would be prepared, so far as the power lodged with the Executive, to exercise liberality. His power is limited by the Constitution, and when peace should be made, Congress must necessarily act in regard to appropriations of money, and to the admission of Representatives from the insurrectionary States."

It is evident President LINCOLN regarded his authority in the work of Reconstruction as "limited" or subordinate, and that of Congress as superior and indispensable. The point is of consequence only because the adulators of President JOHNSON endeavor to shelter him behind the great name and example of his immediate predecessor.

Some leading manufacturers, in the same breath, ask continued inflation of the paper currency and increased duties on imported goods. It seems to us the likeliest way to get increased Protection is to put down the price of gold by reducing the volume of irredeemable paper promises. Gold stands, say at 26 per cent. premium—ten may be taken as the par of exchange. If gold should go to 100, sixteen per cent. ad valorem would practically be added to the im post duties. That is much more than Congress is likely to grant by any supplemental bill. Indeed, that is a rate full as high as any of the manufacturers would think of asking. Why, then, go in for an inflation of the currency which neutralizes all the advantages which might be derived from the tariff?

CITY ITEMS.

The Breaking up of Winter.

Under the hard seal of winter the filth of our cities, the pestiferous soil of our marshes and swamps, the mud and slime that form the alluvial of our great rivers, have been for nearly three months comparatively harmless. But now the early spring sun is thawing them, and the elements of disease that were torpid under the frost are fermenting, effervescing, evaporating. The atmosphere is heavy with malaria and miasma. Every cubic foot of air we breathe is tainted more or less with the mephitic vapor which returning warmth exhales from the unwholesome material of every description.

This, then, is the season when the system needs protection, and the experience of fourteen years has proved that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by invigorating the stomach, toning the liver, regulating the bowels, and bracing the nerves, puts the whole organization in a condition of defense against the subtle poison which generates Agues, Remittent Fevers, Bilious attacks, Indigestion and Nervous diseases.

Now is the time for prevention. The cure is already on the wing; is it not the wildest improvidence to neglect the antidote? A few bottles of Hostetter's Bitters in every house in a new settlement, or a dirty city, or a marshy district, will secure the whole population against all the ordinary spring epidemics, if the preparation is universally and faithfully taken according to the directions. It is from lack of resistant power in their systems that men and women are prostrated by disease. Invigorate, regulate and purify the body and cheer the mind with the great Tonic, Alterative and Detergent, and all will be well.

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 66 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Fourth street.

CITY ITEMS.

By Their Toes Shall You Know Them.

The British officials in Ireland pounce upon a man in square-toed boots as a panther pounces on a possum. "Wearing of the Green" is a venial and condonable offence compared to wearing of the Congress Gaiters with rectangular extremities. These latter articles of pedal covering are regarded as incontrovertible evidence of the buckless individual sporting them being a Fenian, fresh from Columbia's hospitable shores, bristling with revolvers, and carrying in his valise bundles of military commissions and bales of greenbacks. On the other side of the Atlantic, for over a year, they have discarded square-toes, and have been making round and pointed toes the fashion. Hence the easy manner in which the line of distinction is drawn. We are falling into the round-toe mode in this country again, however, and persons of good taste rather like the change. But whether people prefer them square, round or pointed, they cannot get a better made, cheaper, more symmetrical and more durable boot than is made by J. A. Robinson & Co., 61 Market street. Their men's boots are unapproachable, and their ladies' exquisitely modeled little balmorals are the handsomest in the city.

Plumbing and Gas Fitting.

Now that people are about to change their residences and remove into new houses, many little changes in water and gas fixtures will be necessary. Some will want a bath-tub constructed, or a kitchen sink introduced into the kitchen, so as to save Bridget the labor of carrying all the water for culinary or domestic purposes, from an outside hydrant. Possibly the position of gas-burners require some change or additions, or it is deemed that those you find in your new house are too old-fashioned for modern times or good taste. In any such case, we would advise our readers to leave an order at the Plumbing and Gas Fitting establishment of Messrs. Tate & Seville, No. 59 Federal street, Allegheny, or 227 Liberty street, Pittsburgh. Both these gentlemen are experienced, practical workmen, who are prepared to give immediate attention to all work in their line, and guarantee satisfaction.

Treaty With Police Band of Sioux.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—A treaty of peace with the Chief and head men of the Lower Pultee band, of the Dakotah or Sioux Indians, has just been officially promulgated. These Indians bind themselves not only to cease all hostilities against the persons and property of the whites, but to use their influence, and if necessary, use physical force to prevent other bands of the Dacotah, or Sioux, or other adjacent tribes from making hostile demonstrations against the Government of the United States or its people. They also bind themselves to use their influence to promote peace among all classes, and to withdraw from the overland route. The Government is to pay them six thousand dollars yearly for twenty-five years, and confer other benefits upon them.

EASTON, Pa., March 29.—The Trustees of Lafayette College met to-day and organized a scientific department. Among the new Professors elected were the Rev. The Fenians in New York.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The rumor afloat yesterday to the effect that Stephens, the Irish Fenian leader, had arrived at New York and was at the O'Mahony headquarters, was without any foundation, and afforded considerable amusement. The strict rules are now in force to prevent the possibility of introducing treason or Fenian speeches having nothing to do with the objects of the Fenian Brotherhood. The meeting of the supreme Senate of the Sweeney Fenian movement was held last evening at Tammany Hall. Towards the close of the evening the hall became densely crowded, it was supposed, by many of the adherents of O'Mahoney.

CINCINNATI, March 29.—A fire at Lebanon during Tuesday night, destroyed property to the amount of fifty thousand dollars.

Flutter Among Old Richmond.

PHILADELPHIA, March 29.—There is a flutter amongst the oil companies, caused by the failure of the several banks at Oil City, Titusville and Franklin, where many of the Philadelphia companies have their funds deposited.

Damages Against Railroad Companies.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The jury to-day brought in a verdict of $5,000 damages in favor of Eugene Moverling against the Hudson River Railroad Company, and Marcus Bell against the Hudson Railroad Company. The plaintiffs each purchased packages by the Northern Central Railroad, which were transferred to defendants and brought to New York. They were, however, delivered by the railroad to another party than the consignees, who each claimed that there were but $5,000 delivered to them, and that the plaintiff was not the real owner of the property. The latter was the main point in the case. The plaintiff, producing a bill of sale, and affirming that he had paid for it by endorsing paper which he had afterwards been compelled to pay the indemnity, contended that the bill of sale was without consideration and void. The jury found a verdict for the plaintiff for $5,784.80, the full amount claimed.

THE DEATH OF SENATOR FOOT.

Imposing Funeral Ceremonies.

THE SENATOR'S LAST MOMENTS.

The Body Transmitted to Vermont.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The Senate gallery was densely crowded to-day to witness the ceremonies consequent upon the death of Senator Foote. Hundreds of persons were unable to obtain admission to the Senate, owing to the immense congregation of spectators. The Senators occupied seats on the left side of the chamber. At twelve o'clock Lieutenant General Grant entered in company with several other military gentlemen. He was in plain citizen's dress. The Justices of the Supreme Court were announced, and took a position on the extreme right.

The President of the United States, accompanied by all the members of the Cabinet, excepting Attorney General Speed, next came in, and occupied one of the front row of seats. Following these, came the members of the House of Representatives, preceded by their officers. These having been seated, the corpse was brought into the Chamber, accompanied by the committee of arrangements—namely Senators Doolittle, Anthony, Howard, Hendricks, Sherman and Buckalew—and by the pall-bearers, consisting of Senators Fessenden, Harris, Johnson, Guthrie, Lane and Sumner, all of them wearing white scarfs. The coffin was placed immediately in front of the Secretary's desk. It was covered with black cloth elaborately and tastefully ornamented. The lid was adorned with the choicest flowers, and bore a plate, with the inscription of the name of the deceased Senator and the date of his birth and death.

The immediate relations and family friends of the deceased occupied seats on the left, and in the gallery of the south side were present, besides these already mentioned, the members of the Diplomatic Corps, officers of the Army and Navy, The Mayor of Washington, the Chiefs of the Executive Bureaus, and many others on the floor of the Senate.

The President pro tempore of the Senate, Mr. Foster, presided. Rev. Dr. Gray, Chaplain of the Senate, opened the exercises by reading appropriate passages of scripture, and by a prayer of deep solemnity, in which he feelingly alluded to the distinguished character of the deceased, and the Christian virtues which adorned his life, and imploring the Divine blessing on the President and his advisers, so that they may derive wisdom from above, to enable them to discharge the highest responsible duties resting upon them.

Rev. Bryan Sunderland, a former Chaplain of the Senate, followed in a brief address, commencing: "Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him," and then followed a brief sketch of the course of which he said that in the Providence of God he was the friend and pastor of the deceased for many years, and now he came as an humble servant of the Master to offer the tribute of the simple story of his going out from among us, as I from the commencement of his last illness to its close in death, show the condition of the soul. His religious faith, and the grounds and hopes of a future life. The minister then gave an account of the spiritual intercourse which he had had with the deceased.

At eleven o'clock the dying Senator expressed a desire to see once more the light of the sun in the heavens, and the Capitol on which he had labored so long and so faithfully in the service of his State and country; and where his associates were about to assemble. They tilted him up, his eyes were already dim, and he could just discern the dome of the Capitol. The words of the 23d Psalm were read, and a solemn prayer delivered by one who was the dearest to him on earth. He called her in his weak and feeble voice, and said, "Kate is this the death? Has it come already?" Then looking with eyes of celestial radiance, and bubbling up his hands he said: "Lord, I set the gates wide open. Be Beautiful! Beautiful!" and then without a pang he immediately expired.

The minister improved the lesson that living grace vouchsafed to all; it fills the mind with memorials the most lasting of all human experience on earth. He asked, in conclusion, who would not exclaim in the language of old, "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his?"

Rev. Dr. Thornton, the Chaplain of the House, made the concluding prayer, in which he said that Senator Foot was more than a statesman and honest man. He was a Christian. The noblest exhibition of manhood is this side of the grave. He then pronounced the benediction.

The funeral services being concluded, a procession was formed in the following order: The Chaplain of Congress for the occasion; the Physician who attended the deceased; the Committee of Arrangements; the Pall Bearers; the Family and Friends of the deceased; the Senators and Representatives from the State of Vermont; Sergeant-at-arms of the Senate of the United States; the members of the Senate, preceded by the President pro tempore, and the Secretary of the Senate, Sergeant-at-arms of the House of Representatives, preceded by the Speaker and Clerk, the Heads of the Executive Departments; the Diplomatic Corps and Judges of the United States; officers of the Executive Department; officers of the army and navy; the Mayor of Washington, citizens and strangers.

The procession proceeded to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad depot, where the corpse was placed in a car for immediate transmission to Vermont.

XXXVIIth CONGRESS---FIRST SESSION

WASHINGTON, March 29.

SENATE.

After the reading of the journal Mr. Sumner rose and said: Mr. President, I move that the Secretary of the Senate be directed to communicate to the Governor of New Jersey a copy of the resolution of the Senate in reference to the seat of Mr. Stockton. The motion was agreed to.

Mr. Poland then rose and in a few words announced the death of his colleague, Mr. Foote. He felt that it was not the time since this great sorrow occurred, that he had not had time to prepare an appropriate address, and he would ask the indulgence of the Senate to deliver one on the occasion. He offered a resolution, which was adopted, that the Senate attend the funeral at one o'clock, and that Senators wear the usual badge of mourning during the remainder of the session.

HOUSE.

After the reading of the journal the Secretary of the Senate appeared and presented a message from that body communicating the resolution adopted by it in reference to the death of Senator Foote.

The resolution having been read, Mr. Merrill said: I think that the Senators are not ready to-day to submit their remarks in relation to the life and services of the distinguished senator from Vermont, whose decease has just been communicated to the House. The House will, however, meet to-morrow week, and therefore the funeral ceremonies cannot be deferred. I wish also to state that a part of my colleagues are now absent. I trust that to-day an opportunity will be afforded to submit the usual eulogy on the life and public services of the deceased. I offer the following resolutions.

Resolved, That the House has heard with deep sensibility the announcement of the death of the Hon. Solomon Foot, a Senator in Congress from the State of Vermont.

Resolved, That as a testimony of respect for the memory of the deceased, the members of this House will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this House in relation to the death of the Honorable senator from Vermont be communicated to the family of the deceased by the clerks.

Resolved, That this House will, as a body, repair to the Senate Chamber to attend the funeral of the deceased at the hour of 1 o'clock P. M., this day, and upon its return to the Hall that the Speaker declare this House adjourned.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, moved that when the House adjourned to-day, it adjourn to meet on Monday next, as the business of several committees had accumulated, and it was desirous that they should have those two days to perfect their business.

Mr. Farnsworth remarked that the adjournment would not retard the business of the House.

Mr. Ashley moved to amend by adjourning until next Tuesday.

After some cross-firing the amendment was agreed to.

Mr. Ashley, of Ohio, moved that the proceedings on Saturday be confined to a general debate.

This motion requiring a unanimous consent Mr. Stevens objected.

The House then reversed its action in reference to the adjournment by reconsidering the vote on the amendments respecting it, and finally agreeing to Mr. Stevens' motion, to adjourn till Monday next. The House then took a recess till one o'clock, and at that hour went in a body to the Senate chamber, preceded by the Clerk, and the members wearing crape on their left arms. Subsequently to the ceremonies, the House adjourned till Monday next.

Unfounded Report—Foreign Exchange.

NEW YORK, March 29.—We have reason for believing that there is no foundation for the report that the agents of the Emperor Maximilian, drawn on London, were returned by the last mail.

TRENTON, N. J., March 29.—The Senatorial question begins to be exciting. The House to-day passed a resolution to go into joint meeting to select a United States Senator, on Wednesday next, but when it came to the senate it was lost by a vote of 4 yeas to 10 nays. Mr. Scovel said he approved the resolution until he knew the men.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The Herald's Paris letter has the text of a secret conversation between Napoleon and Maximilian, concluded at the city of Mexico on the 24th of September last, fixing the pay and position of the French agents in Mexico, the number of whom is quite large, for five years from the above date.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Trial of Elizabeth Grimm for Infanticide

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER, Thursday, March 29.—Before Judges Sterrett, Mellon, Stowe and Brown.

At two o'clock in the afternoon the case of the Commonwealth vs. Elizabeth Grimm, charged with murder, was called up for trial.

The defendant is a young girl, born of honorable but respectable parents, who reside at the corner of Strawberry and Cherry alleys, in the Third ward of this city. The indictment sets forth that on the 19th of June, 1865, the defendant, being delivered of a male bastard child, did "kill and murder" the child by casting it into a privy. On a hearing before the Mayor, the girl stated that she had had illicit intercourse with a young man named Dauler and that, on the birth of the child, it had been thrown into a privy, where it was subsequently found.

The prisoner was brought in from jail, where she has been confined for nearly nine months, and the indictment having been read to her she pleaded not guilty.

A. M. Brown and H. C. Mackrell, Esqs., appeared for the defense, and John M. Kirkpatrick, ex-District Attorney, for the prosecution.

The following jury was empannelled to try the case:

John Tendon,	Wm Lowe,
Andrew Getty,	Louis Muller,
George Patkin,	Jesse Espy,
James Shupman,	James Donnelly,
Daniel Tranter,	Robert Thompson,
Thomas Kelly,	Thos. P. Rowley.

Alderman Donaldson, who held the inquest on the body of the deceased child, testified to the finding of the child in the privy, and other matters connected with the inquest.

James Kennedy, a member of the night police, testified that, on the 20th of June, he was called, by men engaged in cleaning the privy, to the fact that a child was lying in the vault. He saw the body of the child, and described its appearance.

Dennis Lawton, James McAllister, John Glenn, Morris White and John Mulherron, gave testimony of a corroborative character.

Dr. J. Rogers, a medical practitioner, practiced physician in this city. On the 27th of last June ex-Mayor Lowry sent to my office the request that I should send him a bottle of ergot, as he desired me to visit Miss Grim at her residence on Cherry Alley, for the purpose of ascertaining whether she was in the condition of health to be removed to the Mayor's office. I visited her mother's house and found the girl had a conversation with her regarding her physical condition. I did not know that the Mayor had previously conversed with her, requested her to make a statement whether or no she had been pregnant. Did not ask her about what was done with the child, did not explain to her that the Mayor had sent me to her; did not caution her not to say any thing; the police officer, I presume, remained to take this statement down in writing. The Mayor on the morning of the 27th of June, 1865. Never saw the girl before; think that is the girl, the prisoner. She stated about a week previous that she had given birth to a child at about two o'clock in the morning, in the privy on the floor. She said that the child cried several times, it being her first birth; that after birth, she said she threw it down the privy; she said it was a male child; I asked her if the umbilical cord was tied. She said no, it was long and torn.

Cross-examined—The child, she said, was a nine months infant; that she did not expect it to be born so soon, as she had intended to give away the next week. Asked her if the child was crying before she threw it away. If the umbilical cord was not tied the child might have died from bleeding. It is considered a surgical necessity that the cord be cut and tied; did not ask her how she put the child in the privy. She said that she had the child thrown it down the privy; she said that she did not desire her mother to hear her while talking to me; she was then in apparent good health; went there under the impression that she had been the subject of abortion; she told her story very straight and in an honest manner; asked her if her mother had admitted any tears to procure an abortion; she said, no; I asked her if the child cried; she said, yes; asked her if the child cried immediately before she threw it down the privy; she said, no; did not ask her if the child was dead when she threw it into the privy; by my object in asking her if the umbilical cord was tied was to ascertain if the child had been properly cared for after birth.

The testimony for the Commonwealth here closed.

A. M. Brown, Esq., proceeded to open the case for the defense. He would therefore say to our readers to give Messrs. Thompson & Groetzinger a call, and our word for it they will feel satisfied that they can purchase good and cheap.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

THURSDAY, March 29.—Before Judges Stowe and Brown.

The jury in the case of Nagle, Kelly, Murphy and others, indicted for riot on oath of Lieut. Jordon, of the night police, were charged by Judge Stowe on the opening of court, and after an absence of a few minutes they returned a verdict of no guilty, but that the defendant pay the costs.

Peter McCoy was tried on an indictment for maintaining a nuisance, the prosecution being instituted by Street Commissioner Flinn. The defendant was the owner of several dwelling houses on Webster street, which were destroyed by fire some few weeks since. The defendant proceeded to repair the buildings, which is going so, it was alleged, violated the law prohibiting the erection of wooden buildings. The jury found a verdict of not guilty, and directed the prosecutor to pay the costs.

W. H. Wilson was charged with erecting a frame building on Cherry alley, contrary to the provisions of the ordinance. The jury returned a special verdict, subject to the decision of the Court on the questions of law reserved.

Wm. Mahler was charged with obtaining money by the amount of one hundred and thirty dollars from Mary Bunn, by false pretense. The defendant it was shown obtained the money by representing that he had a large amount deposited in Bank of Commerce, and that he would return the loan in a few days. It was in proof that he had no money whatever deposited in the banking house referred to, and as no testimony was offered in defense, the jury found a verdict of guilty without leaving the box. Judge Stowe remarked that he regretted the law did not provide imprisonment in the Penitentiary in such cases, as the crime was morally greater than larceny. The Court then sentenced the prisoner to undergo an imprisonment of two years in the county jail, remarking that the defendant would probably have an opportunity of rendering some service to the county in the new work-house, to which he would be transferred upon its completion.

J. M. Robitzer was found guilty on an indictment for selling liquor without license. The Court sentenced defendant to pay a fine of seventy-five dollars and the costs of prosecution.

The Suspension of Culver, Penn & Co.

The New York Commercial Advertiser attributes the suspension of Culver, Penn & Co., bankers of that city, to difficulties connected with the building of a railroad connecting Reno with Pithole City, and with investments in oil property. Parties connected with Oil City, and opposed to the new railroad project, are said to have circulated reports reflecting upon the credit of Culver, Penn & Co., which caused a run upon the firm, and necessitated its suspension. We understand that the firm's failure is certain to involve the failure of five local banks, including the Crawford County Bank and the Oil City Bank. The Commercial Advertiser says: "We have good reason for believing that no bank or firm in this city will be affected by the failure; nor are any private deposits here likely to suffer. We would refer, at present no important business connections in this city. The firm has no connection with the Third National Bank, as appears to be very generally supposed. The liabilities of the firm are very heavy, but a favorable liquidation is anticipated."

Killed on the Railroad.

An accident occurred at the Outer Depot of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, on Wednesday, by which a man named Amos L. Zindorf lost his life. The deceased, it appears, was in the employ of the company in the capacity of a brakeman. At the time of the accident he was riding on a westward bound freight train, and attempting to jump from it to an eastward train. He, however, missed his footing, fell between the cars and rolled on the track. The train passed over his body, cutting off his right leg above the knee, smashing his left leg, and otherwise mutilating him in a terrible manner. He was carried to an adjoining house, and after suffering great agony, died at six o'clock in the evening. The deceased was a young man, apparently about nineteen years of age, and resided near Greensburg, in Westmoreland county, to which place his remains were yesterday sent for interment.

The Alleged Corruption at Harrisburg.—A number of gentlemen of this city have been subpœnaed to testify before the Investigation Committee appointed by the Legislature to examine the allegations of corruption to secure the passage of the new liquor bill. Among those summoned are D. O'Neill, Esq., Editor

NOW AND THEN.

The position of the President now is that Congress has no authority over the work of reconstructing the Union; that the war being over the republic naturally reconstructs itself; that no forfeitures having been entailed on States by rebellion, none are to be enforced; that individuals who took up arms against the government absolutely absolve themselves from criminality and become entitled to exemption from punishment or disabilities by accepting the situation as the fortune of war left it; that any rebel, no matter how flagrant his conduct may have been, is or ought to be eligible to a seat in either branch of the national legislature; and that all that remains for Congress to do is to look over the credentials of men claiming to be members, see they are in proper form and duly attested, and that counter claims are not made to the same seats.

In July last the President was of a different mind. Then he was of opinion that Congress had much to say in regard to reconstruction. Here is the proof:

WASHINGTON, July, 24, 1865.

W. L. Sharkey, Provisional Governor of Mississippi, Jackson:

Your telegram of the 21st has been received. The President sees no reason to interfere with General Slocum's proceedings. The government of the State will be provisional only until the civil authorities shall be restored, with the approval of Congress. Meanwhile military authority cannot be withdrawn.

WILLIAM H. SEWARD.

Here is a distinct admission of the power of Congress over the whole matter of the restoration of the seceding states. This admission was not casual or accidental. It was manifestly upon premeditation and design. At all events it accords with common sense, with the obvious principles of popular goverment, and with the plain inculcations of the Constitution. If the President had held to that position there would have been no conflict between him and Congress, and no alienation from him of the loyal people of the nation. Whatever conflict and alienation have arisen he has needlessly provoked by taking ground in violation of the rights of a co-ordinate branch of the government and subversive of the public liberties.

THE STOCKTON CASE.

The telegraph made such fearful blunders in the report of the proceedings on the case of Mr. STOCKTON, of New Jersey, that we are compelled to go back and give a history of the proceedings from the start.

On Friday, of last week, the resolution of the Judiciary Committee was taken up in the Senate, declaring that Mr. STOCKTON was entitled to his seat.

Mr. CLARK moved to amend the resolution so as to declare that he was not entitled to his seat. Lost: yeas 18; nays 22.

The question recurring on the original resolution, the vote was, yeas 21; nays 21, when Mr. STOCKTON rose and voted for himself, making the vote 22 to 21.

On Monday the case came up again on a motion of Mr. SUMNER to amend the journal by striking out the vote of Mr. STOCKTON, he having no right to vote in his own case; but Mr. POLAND making a motion to reconsider the vote of Friday, Mr. SUMNER withdrew his motion, and the motion of Mr. POLAND, to reconsider, was agreed to.

The original resolution being thus again before the Senate, Mr. SUMNER moved that Mr. STOCKTON be not allowed to vote upon it. Agreed to.

Mr. SHERMAN moved to recommit the matter to the Judiciary Committee, which was lost; yeas, 18; nays, 22.

Mr. JOHNSON then moved to postpone the matter until Thursday, pending which the Senate adjourned.

On Tuesday the case came up again. Mr. CLARK moved to amend the resolution so as to make it read:

"Resolved, That John P. Stockton, not having received a majority of the votes of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, present and voting, is not entitled to his seat as Senator from that State for the term of six years from the 4th of March, 1865."

After considerable debate the question was taken upon Mr. CLARK's amendment. The amendment was adopted. Yeas, 22; nays, 21; as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Brown, Chandler, Clark, Conness, Cragin, Cresswell, Fessenden, Grimes, Howard, Howe, Kirkwood, Lane, (Ind.,) Nye, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sherman, Sprague, Sumner, Wade, Williams, Wilson and Yates—22.

NAYS—Messrs. Anthony, Buckalew, Cowan, Davis, Doolittle, Guthrie, Harris, Henderson, Hendricks, Johnson, Lane, (Kansas,) M'Dongal, Morgan, Nesmith, Norton, Poland, Riddle Saulsbury, Trumbull, Van Winkle, and Willey—21.

ABSENT OR NOT VOTING—Messrs. Dixon, Foot, Foster (paired,) Morrill (paired) Stewart, Stockton and Wright.

The question thus occurred on the adoption of the resolution. The yeas and nays were demanded, and the resolution as amended, declaring that John P. Stockton is not entitled to his seat, was adopted. The vote was identical with the one recorded above.

Mr. RIDDLE asked leave to change his vote. This made the vote yeas 23, nays 20.

The decision in this case is a just one. There were legal doubts in the minds of some, but the fact that Mr. STOCKTON was not elected by a majority of the votes of the New Jersey legislature is a sufficient justification for ousting him.

SUFFRAGE IN WISCONSIN.—In 1849 the question whether the word "white" should be struck from the qualifications for suffrage, was submitted to the people of Wisconsin, and a large majority of those who voted on that question voted in favor of striking out. But a large portion of the voters did not vote on that question, and in those days of democratic ascendancy it was held that the proposition to strike out must be approved by a majority of the loyal number of voters of the State, before it could become valid, and not simply by a majority of those voting on that question. Under this ruling those who did not vote at all in effect voted no, and many undoubtedly refrained from voting with the belief that a vote withheld was as good as a negative vote given. The Supreme Court of the State has now decided, however, that the question was settled by the majority of those who actually voted, and that majority having been given in favor of negro suffrage, negroes have now the same right to vote in Wisconsin that other men have.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

The Washington correspondents all say that the vote in the Senate on the Civil Rights Bill will be either 34 to 14 or 30 to 15, the one Senator in doubt being JIM LANE of Kansas. The probability is, however, the vote will not be taken before Monday next, by which time two new Republican Senators will appear from Vermont and New Jersey, raising the vote to 32 or 33 for the bill to 14 or 15 against.

The probable vote is thus foreshadowed by one of the correspondents:

YEAS—Messrs. Anthony, Brown, Chandler, Clark, Conness, Crogin, Cresswell, Fessenden, Foster, Grimes, Harris, Henderson, Howard, Howe, Kirkwood, Lane, (of Indiana,) Nye, Poland, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Sumner, Trumbull, Wade, Willey, Williams, Wilson and Yates—30.

NAYS—Messrs. Buckalew, Cowan, Davis, Doolittle, Guthrie, Hendricks, Johnson, Lane, (of Kansas,) McDougall, Morgan, Nesmith, Norton, Riddle, Saulsbury and Van Winkle—15.

To the affirmative votes are to be added those of the new Senators from Vermont and New Jersey. Messrs. DIXON, of Connecticut, and WRIGHT, of New Jersey, are sick, and will probably not be present.

The Washington Chronicle says that notwithstanding the oft-repeated assertion that the Lieutenant-General expects to "go to Europe in a special Government vessel," he has made no such arrangement, and is not informed that such a vessel is at his disposal.

The Constitutional Union, one of the President's organs in Washington, thus fiendishly alludes to the attempt recently made in that city to burn out Mrs. SWISSHELM:

"Some one on Saturday night set fire to the office of old Mrs. Swisshelm, who publishes a hebdomidal called The Reconstructionist. A colored girl discovered the fire and, at once threw water on the flames, and thus quenched the fire. The old gal must have been terribly frightened, as well as her female compositors.

We hardly believe any one would be guilty of attacking or endeavoring to impose on an old lady like Mrs. Swisshelm, or any other lady, and are inclined to believe it was self-combustion, or something of the sort.

Mrs. Swisshelm and the female compositors alluded to occupied rooms over the composition office, and had the object of the incendiary been accomplished, the Union might have had an opportunity to rejoice over the holocaust.

MR. CLYMER ON INFIDELITY.

On the 11th of March, 1862, in the debate in the Senate on the resolutions favoring the abolition of Slavery in the District of Columbia, Mr. CLYMER had the audacity to declare—

"It is an admitted fact, and not mere theory, that abolitionism leads to infidelity."

In the course of the same speech he avowed his own convictions in these terms:

"The Constitution is now the written law of the land, and the expressed will of the people—the only one that in governmental matters and subjects of state or national policy, binds my conscience."

This is precisely the doctrine of HOBBES and FILMER, two of the most famous and learned British deists—that the civil law is the standard of right. It was not abolitionism that made Mr. CLYMER adopt their ideas.

But, let us see. The late Democratic State Convention, by which he was nominated for Governor, passed this resolution:

"That we owe obedience to the Constitution of the United States, including the amendment prohibiting Slavery, and under its provisions will accord to those emancipated all their rights of person and property."

Now, Mr. CLYMER, what we want to know of you is if the democratic party fell into infidelity when it endorsed in this broad manner the full consummation of abolitionism? Speak.

SOLDIERS' ORPHANS.

The General Appropriation Bill, as it passed the House of Representatives at Harrisburg, contains an item of $250,000 for the maintenance and education of soldiers' orphans, under the system adopted a year or two ago. A clause is added to the section authorizing the Governor to afford partial relief in cases where he may judge it proper for orphans to remain with their surviving parents, relatives or guardians, and receive instructions in the public schools of the Commonwealth.

A separate bill, relating to this matter, has passed the House. The main features of this bill are decidedly objectionable. The proposition is to turn the Soldiers' Orphans over to the care of the School Directors of the respective wards, boroughs or school districts; to charge these officers, "as far as in them lies to make arrangements for the maintenance and schooling" of these orphans, and "upon such terms that the services of said children shall either in whole or in part be accepted as an equivalent for the necessary expenses incurred."

While this bill might be regarded as better than nothing, it is not such provision as comports with the intention of the Commonwealth in entering upon this matter. By all means, gentlemen of the Senate! allow this bill to become defunct, and pass the item as it stands in the General Appropriation Bill.

SOME of the democratic journals have made a notable discovery. They have found out why merchandise is falling in price. It is all because Congress fails to accept the President's Policy. If, say they, Congress would only be docile and complying, the Southern people would magnanimously come forward and buy so many goods as might be necessary to sustain the market. We are so short-sighted as not to see how one Policy or another of reconstruction can affect either the wants or the means of payment of the people in the seceding States. If they had only one good crop made, they would be able to buy and pay. Till then they will not.

But these democratic journals ought to have wit enough to see their appeal is double-edged. What is it? All who want dear goods, stand by the President. All who want cheap goods, stand by Congress. On that division the party of Congress would be twenty to one.

A CORRECTION.—Mr. STOCKTON, in his recent speech before the Senate, attempting to justify his vote for himself, stated that the Republican Speaker of the New Jersey Senate had elected himself by his own vote, parties in that body standing eleven Republican to ten Democratic. Mr. SCOVEL, the Speaker of the New Jersey Senate, says it is not true. The democratic candidate for Speaker voted for him (Mr. SCOVEL,) and Mr. SCOVEL in return voted for him. So even that poor excuse is lost to Mr. STOCKTON.

HON. L. W. HALL.—A Harrisburg correspondent of the Commercial recently stated that Hon. L. W. HALL, Senator from Blair county, was "a persistent candidate for the Chairmanship of the Union State Committee." We are authorized to say that there is not a word of truth in this. Mr. HALL was not only not an applicant for the place but persistently refused to allow his name to be used in that connection. We make this denial upon the very best authority.

THE Baltimore American says of the veto of the Civil Rights Bill: Our opinion as to the justice, constitutionality and propriety of the bill has already been expressed, and we see nothing in the objections of the President that for a moment shakes those convictions. The powers given by the bill were no more extended than those which were given and exercised under the Fugitive Slave law for the return of fugitives. Commissioners precisely like those constituted by this Civil Rights Bill were appointed and acted. Where the people obstructed or resisted them in capturing and returning a fugitive, the commissioners were authorized to call upon the body of citizens; a citizen who refused to serve at the commissioner's call was subject to fine and imprisonment; and if they were required, the military force might be called in to aid the agents of the General Government. In one notable case, that of Burns, in Boston, the military force was then used. That which was done in behalf of Slavery we think could much more righteously be done in behalf of Freedom. On this point the President is at issue with Congress, and with nine-tenths of the party who elected him. The appeal must now be made to the people, and in their verdict we have the fullest confidence."

THE SUPREME COURT, in session at Philadelphia, has decided that where a check is drawn by parties having no funds to meet it, and the parties presenting the check know that fact and do not acquaint the bank with it, they become parties to a fraud, and the fact that the bank inadvertently passed it to the credit of the drawees without examining the accounts of the drawer does not make it liable to the drawees for the amount.

LETTER FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, March 21, 1865.

EDITORS PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.—I have been devoting my time since the date of my last letter to an observation of affairs in and about New Orleans. The city is at present the headquarters of quite a number of Southern celebrities. I find General Longstreet has established himself here in the liquor business. General Beauregard is engaged in one of the railroad offices of the city—I understand, in the capacity of civil engineer, or superintendant. General's Hood, Dick Taylor, Wheeler and Adams are also here. General Wade and family are stopping at the St. James Hotel, as is also Mrs. Jefferson Davis. The presence of these gentlemen at any point is not of quite so much importance now, as it was a year or two ago when they were commanding large armies. Indeed, the people here take no notice of their comings and goings whatever, although I am informed that some of them who have recently visited the North, were toasted, flattered, and lionized superbly, though for the most part in a quiet way.

I have had numerous opportunities since I have been here of hearing the labor question so far as it refers to the negro, discussed, and have heard all sides of the subject presented. It is astonishing to what extent unanimity of the citizens of the South stick to the doctrine that "the nigger will not work except under the lash or as a slave." They are sure that the free labor system applied to the blacks will ruin the South. On the other hand I have met and conversed with a number of gentlemen formerly from the North who have been engaged in the cultivation of cotton plantations during and since the war. Their testimony is uniform that they want no better hands. But they must be partially paid, or they will not work.

The great difficulty with many of the former slave owners is that, although they say the negro is free and pretends to be so, they cannot treat him like a free man. They imagine they still have a sort of equitable right to his services and labor for less than they are really worth. One blunder of the old slave boarded old fellows go so far as to say that they will let their plantations stand idle before they will pay a nigger they own for his work; for doing which he might get $25 per month and board, occasionally a overseeing man from the North buys or rents a plantation in the neighborhood of one of these old fogies. He pays well and treats the negro well, and has no difficulty in obtaining all the hands he wishes to employ. Old fogy shakes his head and says the free labor system will not do for this country. The fact is old fogy has no confidence in the negroes working, and the negro has no confidence in old fogy's paying. The consequence is that a free role round, and there is a fair chance for other hand, the Northern man, with capital and energy, and paying fair wages for his labor, has gone on and in a single year has made a handsome fortune. I know of many instances where this has been the case. He has not only made money for himself, but has benefited the negro and his employer also by thus demonstrating their value under the free labor system. The consequence is that there are localities where cotton lands are renting for much more per annum than they could have been sold for six or eight months ago.

But no man who travels through the south needs any testimony on the subject of whether the negro will work as well as other people when paid for it. The evidence is before his eyes, no matter what people may say. For instance, I have stood upon the deck of a Mississippi steamer and listened to southern men talk about the vile and vagabond tendencies of the negro—men who from their appearance never did a day's work for a principal in their lives—while right under their very eyes a gang of probably fifty or a hundred negroes were performing for hours together the hardest labor which the human frame is capable of enduring. Whoever knows anything about the duties of a deck hand on our western rivers, knows that it is decidedly a hard pretty much all done now by black men. Talk about the freed people as a class not being willing to work. Why, they are running the whole steamboating country—they are on every where. They are raising the crops; they are building the houses; they are loading and discharging the vessels at the wharfs; they are driving the drays and hacks that throng the city; and are doing the hard labor everywhere, and in many instances are becoming mechanics and skilled laborers. Opposite the window where I write, a large brick building is in process of construction. There are probably thirty or forty workmen employed about the building; brickmasons, stonemasons, carpenters, &c., and there is not a white man among them all. But the fellows who hang about the drinking saloons near by, will tell you notwithstanding, that the nigger will not work.

In regard to education, I find New Orleans is badly off for schools. I cannot learn that the city has any system of schools for the whites or blacks. I find that soon after the occupation of New Orleans by the National forces, a number of schools for colored children were started in the city under the auspices of the Freedman's Bureau. These schools were sustained chiefly by the proceeds arising from rents of property abandoned by the rebels. The number of colored pupils in attendance at the schools in the city under this arrangement was about six thousand. Since the cessation of hostilities the absent rebels have returned and taken possession of their abandoned property, and consequently cut off the revenue by which these schools had been started and supported. Since that time nothing has been received from the Freedman's Bureau or from volunteer contributors at the North towards the support of the colored schools of this city. Teachers and officers of the Bureau have still managed to continue twelve of the schools in existence, depending for support solely upon the tuition paid by the pupils. After an experience of several months they have now twelve schools, employing twenty-five teachers, with an average attendance of three thousand pupils which are entirely self-supporting. The colored people manifest a willingness to pay for their schooling whenever able to do so. But in a majority of cases they have not been long enough out of slavery to have accumulated anything for school purposes. A majority of the colored children are therefore still unprovided with schools.

An effort is now being made to organize a normal school here for colored persons, in order to qualify them for the purpose of school teaching. This I regard as a very worthy and important movement from the fact that it will be next to impossible to educate the masses of the freed people except through the instrumentality of colored teachers. And in order to do so the teachers yet must have normal schools to qualify them for their duties.

The Mayoralty of New Orleans remains undecided. On the day the new Mayor (Monroe) was to have been installed into office, General Canby issued an order prohibiting him from assuming the duties of his office until certain ugly little matters could be cleared up, which are alleged against him. I am not familiar with the grounds of complaint further than that he was a registered enemy of the Government from the time the city surrendered to General Butler up to the close of the war, and is alleged to have committed numerous high crimes and misdemeanors which render him ineligible for the office of Mayor. General Canby has appointed a Mayor to act pro tempore, and has referred the subject to the President for decision. Every confidence is felt by the friends of Mr. Monroe, who is regarded as the representative of the stringent type of hatred against the "tyranny of the Government," that the President will kindly pardon all his crimes and thus help him to the position of which the fortunes of war deprived him when he surrendered his place and the city to Gen. Butler. Very truly yours,

ELIAS H. IRISH.

VARIOUS ITEMS.

A KETCHUP SENSATION.—The latest sensation in England is "mushroom ketchup." It seems that no mushrooms are used in the preparation of this delightful compound, but that the base of it is decayed beef liver, called Smithfield mushrooms. Enormous quantities of these livers are collected in England and imported in closed bags from the continent. The livers are salted in tubs until the mass becomes thoroughly putrid and the contents are then boiled in iron tanks. All that remains is to strain off the liquid carefully and add to it fragrance and pungency by mixing it with spices. That which remains after the straining process is covered with a layer of ashes and sold for manure.

LUTHER'S ASTRONOMY.—The great Reformer was not well posted in astronomy. In his Table-talk, we find him saying:

"I am now advertised that a new astronomer is risen, who presumeth to prove that the earth moveth and goeth about—not the firmament, the sun, moon, nor the stars; like as when one sitteth in a coach or in a ship, and is moved, thinketh he sitteth still and resteth, but the earth and the trees go, run, and move themselves. Therefore, thus it goeth when we wean ourselves to our own foolish fancies and conceits. This fool will turn the whole art of astronomy upside down; but the Scripture showeth and teacheth him another lesson, where Joshua commandeth the sun to stand still, and not the earth."

THE Davenporters are paying dearly for their skating parks. It will be remembered that these parks were constructed on the river by clearing away the snow and flooding the ice with water when it becomes rough. Repeated floodings and freezings added to the thickness of the ice, and the consequence is that it is now so thick it is difficult to break up. The whole mass, about ten acres in extent, floated off in a body, lodging on an island below the city, and completely blockading the channel. It now remains in that condition, and from present appearances navigation will open to that city sometime before the first of July. So says a Muscatine paper.

A GERMAN paper publishes an anecdote of President Lincoln, which has not been in print in this country. A lieutenant, whom debts compelled to leave his fatherland and service, succeeded in being admitted to the late President Lincoln, and, by reason of his commendable and winning deportment and intelligent appearances, was promised a lieutenant's commission in a cavalry regiment. He was so enraptured with his success, that he deemed it a duty to inform the President that he belonged to one of the oldest noble houses in Germany. "Oh, never mind that," said Mr. Lincoln, "you will not find that to be an obstacle to your advancement."

THE NEW GRECIAN ISLAND.—The American Consul at Piraeus, Greece, has sent to the Department of State a report of his observations on the new volcanic island in the Grecian Archipelago, which has been fully described. His account confirms the previous reports, and adds that the island is completely divided by a chasm, and four little lakes of sweet water are constantly increasing in size. At the time the Consul's despatches were mailed (February 15) the sulphurous odor and smoke were becoming more intense, and at times red flames were seen at the centre of volcanic action, and the smoke became thicker and of a deeper color.

AMERICAN COTTON STOCKINGS.—During the war improvements in American manufactures progressed at a rapid rate, and in nothing more rapid than in cotton hosiery. Until 1864 the American hosiery makers confined themselves to the common grades of ribbed hose, and attempted no competition with England and Germany in manufacturing finer goods. Now, however, plain cotton hose, of the best quality, is extensively made in the United States, and the manufacturers are also extending their improvements in underclothing, making the latter quite as good as the imported articles.

RENDERING TREASON ODIOUS.—The Spanish Council of War has condemned General PRIM and his associate rebels to be shot. It is thought quite likely that this is but a preliminary step to calling the general to Madrid to accept of some high office under the Government. Such, at least, has been the course pursued toward Spanish rebels heretofore. Mr. JOHNSON'S policy has a resemblance to that of ISABELLA. He was going, "By the Eternal," to hang all traitors "as high as HAMAN." What he actually seems disposed to do, is to invite such as STEVENS to the capital to take seats in the Senate of the United States.

THE MACHIAS (Me.) Union says that, forty-six years ago, a terrible storm of sleet and hail took place in that section of Maine. It hailed without cessation for six days and six nights, making it oppressive and dangerous to be out of doors. The hail seemed like bits of ice, sharp and solid. Previous to this storm there was snow to the depth of three or four feet. The hail added to its depth, and formed a crust so stout that the heaviest teams passed with entire safety over fields and pastures, into the forests, unobstructed by stumps and fences.

IMPOLITENESS.—Recently, in Syracuse, New York, a young man, going home from his work, met three ladies walking abreast on the side walk. To get past them, rudeness or the gutter was his only alternative. He chose the gutter, slipped upon a piece of ice, fell, and dislocated his arm, besides severely bruising other portions of his body. The young man will be confined to the house for weeks, and all for want of politeness on the part of the ladies he met. Such ladies, we regret to say, are occasionally met with in this city as well as in Syracuse.

THE London Spectator says: "Dr. Whewell was a great mathematician, and had a reputation for general knowledge, which once led to the circulation of a myth that some fellows of Trinity crammed up the theory of Chinese music on purpose to find a subject on which Dr. Whewell knew nothing, but found that his familiarity with the subject was greater than their own."

A STRANGER from the country observing an ordinary roller-rule on the table, took it up and inquiring its use was answered: "It was a rule for counting-houses." Too well bred to ask unnecessary questions, he turned it over and over, and at last, in a paroxysm of baffled curiosity, inquired: "How in the name of wonder do you count houses with this?"

A MONUMENT at Toulouse bears the following inscription: "Pause a moment, wayfarer, and read. Here lies Mandinelli, who lived 120 years, 70 of which he passed with his wife, by whom he had 24 children. He died in the year 1565. Of this I desired to inform you, least you should remain in ignorance. Go your way and pray."

A SILVER wedding that will be worth witnessing will be observed on the 28th of April, at St. Petersburg. It is that of Czar Alexander and the Czarina. They were married on the 28th of April, 1841. The Czar's birthday falls on the 29th of April, when he will be 48 years old.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AYER'S PILLS—Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order with your system deranged and your feelings unde so serious illness. Some fit of sickness is coming upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and deranges its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in this condition, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trifling and common complaint is also true in many of the deep seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. The same obstructions and derangement of the functions of the body, they are the natural functions of health, and many of them are rapidly cured by the same means. None who know the virtue of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure, such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Biliousness, Constipation, Heartburn, Liver Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Foulness, Constipation, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Worms and Suppression, when taken in large doses. They are Sugar Coated, so that the most sensitive can take them easily, and they are surely the best purgative medicine yet known.

AYER'S AGUE CURE.

For the speedy cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fever, combined for the whole class of diseases originating from Miliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of Autumnal exhalations.

This remedy has nearly failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague remedies, that it contains the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism. Be sure and shun the shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and be cured. Read these assertions—

TO NERVOUS SUFFERERS,

FINANCE AND TRADE.

THURSDAY, March 29, 1866.

—The case that was before Judge Nelson, of New York, last summer, involving the question whether a broker is chargeable with the tax on sales of securities made on his own account and for his own benefit, the same as when operating for others, and which was then decided in the negative, has been up again in the Supreme Court, and on Monday reached a decision, reversing the judgement of Judge Nelson. By this decision, the broker will have to pay tax hereafter on their own business as on that of their customers, and an exchange paper says, will also be required to pay the full amount of taxes in arrear.

—The Ways and Means Committee have decided to devote this week to considering questions relating to a reduction of internal revenue taxes. Several modifications of existing laws are likely to be made, but perhaps not in time to effect this years assessments. It is nearly certain that now will be made on income exemptions. As taxes on transportation of freights are direct taxes on producers and consumers to about twice the amount realized to the Government, the committee is likely to unanimous in recommending a great reduction in this source of Revenue.

—The following are the receipts from customs at the principal ports of the United States from the 16th to the 17th inst.:

New York	$2,664,953 14
Boston	741,827 45
Philadelphia	149,595 45
Baltimore	50,472 13
Total	$3,146,848 17

—The following shows the exports (exclusive of specie) from New York to foreign ports for the week ending March 27, 1866, were $6,137,258.

—The following comparative statement shows the average condition of the leading items of the Philadelphia Banks for the past and previous week:

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, March 29, 1866.

The produce markets continue quiet and somewhat neglected, but there is no remarkable change to note in prices. The advance in gold has produced a little more firmness on the part of holders of some of the leading commodities, but the e is no improvement in the demand, which continues to be restricted almost entirely to supplying the immediate wants of the retail trade, and round lot operations are of very rare occurrence.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged. Oats steady with a fair local demand, at 45@48. Barley is in rather better demand but unchanged, quoted at 75 for Spring and 90 for Fall. Corn is selling in a small way from store at 85 to 90. Sale of 500 bush prime Penna Rye at 92 cents, delivered at Monongahela wharf.

FLOUR—Is quiet but steady with a continued fair jobbing demand, at $8,00 to $8,50 for spring Wheat; $9@9,25 for Extra; $9,50@10 for half Winter; $10@10½ for all Winter Wheat Rye Flour is dull and entirely nominal at $6½@7.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is dull but unchanged, sales at 13½@13¾ for Shoulders; 16 for Ribbed Sides; and 18@18½ for Sugar Cured Hams. Mess Pork is dull and nominal at $28@29. Lard is still quoted at 18@18½.

SEEDS—Cloverseed is a little more active in the east, but, as yet, there is no improvement in the demand here; small sales at $5,50@6 per bush. Flaxseed is in demand at $2,80 and but little offering. Timothy is still quoted at $3@3,25.

BUTTER—Is less active under the influence of improved receipts, and prices are barely maintained; common to choice Roll may be quoted at 40@52.

EGGS—Steady, with a fair demand at 25 per dozen.

POTATOES—In good demand, and a very light supply. We quote from store at $1,50@1,75 per bush, and $3@3,25 per barrel, as to quality.

DRIED FRUIT—Is quiet and unchanged. Small sales of Apples at 12½@13, and Peaches at 15@20, for quarters and halves.

SALT—Is dull but unchanged, quoted at $2,60@2,65 per bbl for the car load, and the usual advance for small lots from store.

ASHES—Common Soda Ash quoted at 8, and Pearls at 12.

OIL—Sales of No. 1 Lard at $1,75.

HOMINY—Sales at 3c to the trade, and 2¾@3 3-4c in a small way.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, March 29, 1866.

CRUDE—The Crude market was exceedingly quiet to-day, but one sale reported, 800 bbls in bulk, at 13¾. The principal obstacle in the way of transactions was the fact that the Crude men endeavored to establish an advance, while, as yet, buyers seem unwilling to pay, though it is said that several sales have already been made at 14 cents. Another point in favor of holders, is the fact, that of the stock in this market is very meagre, and the arrivals, for obvious reasons, have been restricted for two or three days past. The reports from Oil City in regard to the price of Crude, both there and at the wells, are so very conflicting, that we pass them by.

REFINED—There was a much better feeling for bonded oil to-day, both for present and future delivery, prices are still tending up, sale of 500 bbls, to be delivered in Philadelphia within twenty days, seller's option, at 40, and 1000 bbls, for August, buyer's option, at 45. Quotations may be fairly given at 40@, on the spot, at 41@41½ for May; 42@42½ for July, and 45 for August. Free Oil is selling in small lots about 51@52.

NAPTHA AND RESIDUEM—There is no demand from any source whatever, for either one of these commodities.

ARRIVALS—But one arrival to report during the past twenty-four hours—225 bbls for Wm. Haldeman.

New York Market.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Cotton a shade lower and less active at 31c for Middling. Flour less active and prices without decided change; $7,15@7,35 for Extra State, $8,25@8,60 for Common to good Shipping Brands and Extra Round Hoop Ohio, and $8,65@9,10 for Trade Brands—market closing quiet. Whisky steady at $2,26@2,27 for Western; 100 bbls. State, in bond at $2,24. Wheat quiet and without decided change; No. 1 Middling at $1,45, small parcel of Amber Iowa at $1,49, and Winter Red Western at $1,30. Rice quiet. Barley more active and firm and 10@2c better; $1,00 for State and inferior Canada Western, $1,18 for Prime and Choice Canada Western. Barley Malt steady at $1,35. Corn a shade firmer but not very active; 66@73c for Unsound, and 74@77c for Sound Mixed Western, both in store and delivered, a small parcel of Choice do at 78c. Round yellow 80@85c, and 77@77½c for Southern Yellow. Oats 1c better; 35@43c for Unsound Western, and 54@55c for Sound. Coffee dull. Sugar steady; Cuba 10½@11¾. Molasses dull; Porto Rico 75c. Petroleum firm; Crude 26¼@27c, Refined in bond 46c, do for June 45c. Pork firmer with a fair demand, $29@26,25 for New Mess—closing at $26,25, regular way, $25,50@25,00 for old do, and $21,25@22,00 for Prime. Also, 4,800 barrels New Mess for April, May and June, sellers' option, at $24@25,50. Beef steady at previous prices. Beef Hams unchanged. Bacon inactive; 13¾@14¾c for Cumberland Cut, 15c, for short Ribbed. Cut Meats steady at 11¾@12¾c for Shoulders, 16½@17¼c for Hams. Lard active 16¼@19¾. Butter quiet, at 25@45c for Ohio and 30@60 for State. Cheese dull at 16@22c.

New York Grocery Market.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Coffee—Has been quiet at previous prices, including Java at 27¼@28¼, Maracaibo at 19¼@20¾, Laguayra at 20¼@22½, Rio at 17@21c, and St. Domingo at 17¾@18¾c, cash, in gold, per lb. The week's receipts of Rio have been 17,415 bags; sales 2785 bags. Stock of all kinds of coffee, to-day, 96,731 bags, including, according to Messrs. Wm. Scott & Sons, 65,579 bags Rio, 3021 bags Laguayra, 612 bags Maracaibo, 4294 bags Cuba, 700 bags Java, and 7025 bags of other kinds.

DETROIT, March 27.—Wheat—Market very firm for choice and extra white, a buyer 60 Chandler offered $2,31 for any amount, from 1 car to 10,000 bush, delivered at any time within three weeks, free on board. For present delivery, $2,28 could be obtained for specific quantities. No. 1 white, although the inquiry is not so animated, could be disposed of at $2,10. The last sale of No. 2 white was at $1,80. No 1 amber is actively sought for at $1,26, and for No. 2 amber, there are buyers at $1,20. Street rates, No. 1 white, $1,93; No. 2 do, $1,90; No. 1 amber, 1,26@1,30; No 2 do, $1,20. Corn—dull at 50c from store in bags. Street price, 47. Oats—held at 31c from store in bags. Street price, 36c. Barley—quiet at $1,25@1,30 per 100 lbs for state, with moderate inquiry. Rye—nothing doing. Nominal rate for State, 95@96. Prime would command 75c to a limited extent.

The following shows the amount of flour and grain in store in Chicago, on saturday, March 24, as compared with the amount in store at the corresponding time last year, as reported by the secretary of the Board of Trade

Wheat	1,103,053	1,454,999
Corn	582,980	389,709
Oats	999,952	1,325,000
Rye	112,321	159,000

Baltimore Seed Market.

BALTIMORE, March 28.—There were further sales after the closing of our report yesterday of 2000 bush clover at $5,75@6,25, bulk at $6 for good; 50-day further sales of 200 bush at $6, and 40 bush ordinary at $5,50 per bushel. The local demand is nearly over; the sales above were altogether for shipment. The market closed firm, with stock much reduced. We hear of nothing worthy of notice in either timothy or flax.

Finance and Trade in New York.

STOCKS AND MONEY.

NEW YORK, March 29.—There was no change in money this afternoon, and the market was very easy at 6@6 per cent. on call. The Produce Exchange will be open for business tomorrow in financial circles. Good Friday will be a holiday. Public sales of real estate have been steadily falling off lately. The reports of the failures among the National Banks in the oil regions do not excite any comment, as it was generally expected that many of them would be compelled to suspend. Gold was quiet towards the close and left off at 127½@127¾. Bankers sterling quoted at 109 with a dull market.

At the last board the market was lower on Erie, Southern and Pittsburgh, but otherwise there was not much change. The following were the closing prices: New York Central, 91¾; Erie, 77¾; Hudson River, 107¼; Michigan Central, 108¾; Michigan Southern, 85¾; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 78½, Chicago and Northwestern, 25¾; do preferred, 55; Cleveland and Toledo, 105½; Rock Island, 104; Fort Wayne, 99¾. Miscellaneous lower; Tennessee, 71; Western Union Telegraph, 70; California 6s, 108.

DRY GOODS.

The following is received from the Dry Goods Market: There is little rise in the market to-day, knowing ones say that it is spasmodic and cannot last, still there are some goods that are firm at the prices; for instance, Merrimac prints cannot be bought for less than the quotations. Standard Sheetings are the same; some bleached goods have yet to come to fair prices, or what buyers consider they are worth, which is from 5 to 10 per cent. lower than they are now. Brown Sheetings—Amoskeag A 25; Augusta 21; Howard A 22; Lanark 20, Laurel C 20; Naumkeag A 21½; Pacific A 25. Bleached Shirtings—Bartlett's 3; Hope 30; James 30; Anthony Manufacturing Company 28; Palmer river 25; Mansville 25; Slater 28; Newburyport 24; New York Mills 25; Reliance 28; Reynolds A 23. Prints—Merrimack W 21; do D 20; Cocheco 20; Sprague 19; Waunita 14. Blue Checks—Cedar Grove 30; Whittenden 28; Workingman 30. Hoop Skirts—Meyers' I X L in fair demand at former prices.

There is an increased activity in the dry goods trade. Jobbers are doing a large business, with interest. Buyers from the South continue to purchase to a fair extent, while Western merchants are now buying more freely than at any time since the season opened. Among domestic fabrics we may notice that bleached goods are firm and brown commons generally steady, standard sheetings being quoted at 24@25. Prints have fallen off about 1c per yard, but are steady at a decline, desirable styles of French dress goods being fair and remunerative, but common wears of English and Continental manufacture still sell at a sacrifice. Woolens are extremely dull, and the decline lately has been quite heavy on domestic goods. Active trade is doing in carpets, and stocks are still very light. Manufacturers are sold out and are working on orders. There is no change to notice in prices.

There is a fair business doing in Boots and Shoes, and prices have not undergone any very important change. American Hardware is not likely to experience any marked decline for the present, owing to the strong combinations of many manufacturers. The raw materials now on hand were generally bought at high prices, and this is too great an incentive for them to keep up the quotations. Nails remain dull at $6,50@6,75, and heavy consignments to large southern cities are barely bringing cost. Cutlery remains scarce and there is very little known to be on the way. Prices are firm and tending upwards.

PETROLEUM.

There is more demand for petroleum shares, and prices are better. There is a disposition to purchase gold shares. Benton was in active request, and little was owing to the fact that a telegram from Colorado states that 165 per ton was taken from the tailings by Lyons' process. Excelsior copper was largely dealt in. Beuquhoff, 12,00; Homowack, 4,00; Pithole, 4,25; United States, 8,00; Benton, 1,00; Kipp and Buell, 2,25; Smith and Palmer, 10,00.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, March 29.—Flour firm. Wheat dull at $1,24@1,24½ for No. 1, and 86½c for No. 2 Corn active at 43½c. Oats firm at 25½c for No. 1. High-wines dull at 21½@22c. Provisions quiet. Mess Pork, $25,00@25,25. Prime Hogs, $10,50@10,75. Receipts of 4,000 barrels of Flour; 6,000 bushels of Wheat; 8,000 bushels of Corn; 5,000 bushels of Oats and 2,500 Hogs. Shipments of 2,300 barrels of Flour; 7,000 bushels of Wheat; 1,300 bushels of Corn and 6,000 of Oats.

St. Louis Market.

Cotton firm at 35c for Middling. Wheat more active and unchanged. Corn active and higher at 62@63c. Oats unchanged. Pork firmer and unchanged. Bacon quiet at 12½c for city; Shoulders 16½c. Lard 18@19c. Whisky steady at $2,22½.
